This calendar invitation is in reference to the Wednesday, October 29 webinar. We will explain the FERC's environmental review process and cooperating agency expectations for the National Environmental Policy Act review of the Rover Pipeline Project (FERC Docket Number PF14-14-000) proposed by ET Rover Pipeline LLC. We invited representatives from ET Rover to participate in the webinar to present a summary of their Project and answer questions.

I will forward the webinar access details to you prior to the meeting. The anticipated webinar agenda is below.

FERC Presentation
